
Fall Semester:
9/16; 10/21; 11/18;

Spring Semester
2/24; 3/31; 4/14; 5/5

Tuesdays: 11:30 a.m. – 12:50 p.m.; Callaway South 221 (Religion Dept. Seminar Room)

PLEASE NOTE: You are required to attend the GDR First Year Colloquy.

There are other trainings through the GDR and the LGS which are required including PSI (Ethics Training, Teaching Conversations, and Professional Development Events. Please watch for Trumba invitations to these events and check the GDR website to understand how and when to meet your requirements: http://gdr.emory.edu/audience_navigation/student-information.html

All important DATES should also be added to your calendar.

Fall 2014:
1) September 16 – Leveraging Laney Grad School Resources/Training: From Travel Funds to Grant-Writing Workshops
   a. Assignment: Go to the Laney Grad School Website and bring to our conversation 3 resources/trainings that interest you – that you have questions about
   b. Student Guests: Meredith Coleman-Tobias (American Religious Cultures) and Harry Huberty (Hebrew Bible)

2) October 21 – Preparing a Proposal – Writing a proposal for an Academic Meeting
   a. Faculty Guests: Jim Hoesteroy, Marko Gelsani, Joe Wiinika-Lydon

3) November 18 – Lullwater Colloquium Update
   a. Student Guests: Sara Williams and Lisa Hoelle

Spring 2015
1) February 24 - Turning a Paper Into an Article –
   a. Student Guests: Ryan Bonafiglio and Tony Alonso
2) March 31 – Lullwater Colloquium Update

3) April 14 – Third Option and other Alt-Ac Possibilities
   a. Student Guests: Kelly Gannon, Meredith Doster, Johannes Kleiner

4) May 5 – Final Lunch Celebration